[Los Angeles, CA] – Career Development Solutions, LLC, a leading provider of IT and tech career training, is excited to announce the successful conclusion of its recent "Counselor Day" event series, held across six of its training center locations. The events provided attendees with an exclusive behind-the-scenes look at their newly updated training spaces, fostering valuable networking opportunities and professional development sessions.

The "Counselor Day" series welcomed counselors from local workforce centers and partner agencies to explore the rebranded facilities, enjoy networking conversations over coffee and continental breakfast with other agency representatives and partake in a dynamic Tips & Tricks session aimed at boosting productivity using Excel and Outlook.
